

GST/HST New Housing Rebate Application for Houses Purchased from a Builder

Fill out this form to claim a GST/HST new housing rebate, a provincial new housing rebate, or a first-time home buyers' (FTHB) GST/HST rebate if you bought a new house (including a residential condominium unit or a duplex) or a share of the capital stock of a cooperative housing corporation (co-op).

Do not use this area.

Do not fill out this form if you built your house or hired someone to build it. Instead, fill out Form GST191, GST/HST New Housing Rebate Application for Owner-Built Houses.

If you purchased this house as a rental property, you do not qualify for this rebate. You may qualify for the new residential rental property rebate instead. To apply for that rebate, you (not the builder) must fill out Form GST524, GST/HST New Residential Rental Property Rebate Application.

Note

GST/HST-registered builders claiming a Type 1A or Type 1B rebate can use GST/HST NETFILE to file their application and GST/HST return online at canada.ca/gst-hst-netfile or by using the "File a return" service in My Business Account. They can also file the rebate application online using the "File a rebate" service in My Business Account. Representatives can access these online services in Represent a Client. To sign in to your Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) account or register to access My Business Account or Represent a Client, go to canada.ca/cra-sign-in-services. If you choose to file your application online, do not send this form to the CRA.

For more information (including instructions, required documents for rebate application types 2, 3 and 5, and the definition of a house), see "General information" on pages 9 and 10 of this form. To avoid delaying your claim or having it denied, make sure you fill out this form in full, calculate your rebate amount correctly and submit the required documents with your application.

Ontario is providing additional top-up relief with an amount equivalent of up to the 5% federal part of the HST, to a maximum of $50,000. This amount would be paid directly by the Province of Ontario. You must be entitled to the Ontario enhanced new housing rebate (ENHR) to qualify for the ONHAP.

The ONHAP amount is reduced by the GST/HST new housing rebate and FTHB GST/HST rebate that you are entitled to, as applicable.

A separate rebate application is not required to claim the ONHAP. Fill out the "ONHAP – Claimant's consent to share information" section on page 3 to allow the CRA to provide the Province of Ontario with the relevant information to administer this payment.

Builders cannot claim a deduction on their GST/HST return for the ONHAP. This will be provided separately by Ontario.

General information

Who should fill out this form

Fill out this form to claim a GST/HST new housing rebate, a provincial new housing rebate, or a First-time Home Buyers' GST/HST rebate if you bought a new house (including a residential condominium unit or a duplex) or a share of the capital stock of a cooperative housing corporation (co-op). The house must be the primary place of residence for you or a relation if you are claiming a GST/HST new housing rebate. The home must be your primary place of residence and you must be the first to occupy it if you are claiming the FTHB GST/HST rebate. If more than one individual owns the house or share, only one individual can claim any of these rebates. If you are claiming the FTHB GST/HST rebate, the claimant must be the first-time home buyer. Partnerships (even if all the partners are individuals) and corporations that buy new houses are not eligible to claim this rebate. An individual cannot claim this rebate if a partnership or a corporation is also an owner of the house.

Do not fill out this form if you built or substantially renovated your house or hired someone to do so. Instead, fill out Form GST191, GST/HST New Housing Rebate Application for Owner-Built Houses.

If you purchased this house as a rental property, fill out Form GST524, GST/HST New Residential Rental Property Rebate Application.

For more information on the conditions that apply for each rebate type, see Guide RC4028, GST/HST New Housing Rebate.

If the application is signed by someone other than the claimant, you must attach a properly executed power of attorney to this form.

If your house is located in a province that offers a provincial new housing rebate for some of the provincial part of the HST and you qualify for that rebate, you also need to fill out the appropriate provincial rebate schedule to claim the provincial new housing rebate.

Note

If you previously purchased a new house and received a new housing rebate, you were assigned a business number for tracking purposes (nine digits followed by RT0001). Use the same number for this application.

Documents required

If your application type is 2, 3 or 5 in Part C, you must send this form to the CRA along with the following documents:

- a copy of the statement of adjustments
- for a mobile home, a copy of the invoice
- a copy of the signed purchase and sale agreement (excluding attachments)

Note

You do not have to submit proof of occupancy with your application. However, the CRA may ask you to provide proof of occupancy later.

Keep any supporting documents for six years in case the CRA asks to see them.

When should I file my claim

Generally, you have two years from the date ownership of the house is transferred to you to claim the rebate.

First-Time Home Buyer

If you are claiming the first-time home buyers' (FTHB) GST/HST rebate, the calculation in the form incorporates the GST/HST new housing rebate (NHR) where applicable. This means a single calculation in Section 4, 5 or 6 of Form RC7190-WS is sufficient unless the FTHB and NHR rebates are being claimed by different individuals. In such cases, each claimant must calculate and report their respective rebate amounts independently.

If you claimed the NHR with the CRA (or had this credited by the builder) on or after March 20, 2025, but you qualify for the FTHB rebate, complete section 4, 5 or 6 of Form RC7190-WS, whichever applies, to calculate your FTHB rebate amount. Enter the calculated amount on line C, H, or L, as applicable. You must subtract the amount already received as a NHR for this home by reporting it on line X1.

If another person is claiming the NHR for this house and you are claiming the FTHB rebate, you must subtract the amount the other person is claiming as a NHR for this home by reporting it on line X1.

Previously claimed provincial rebates

If you are claiming the Ontario FTHB rebate or the Ontario ENHR, and either you or someone else has already claimed the Ontario new housing rebate for the house (including where the rebate was credited by the builder), enter the amount of the previously claimed rebate on line X2.

If you are claiming the Ontario ENHR, and either you or someone else has already claimed the Ontario FTHB rebate for the house (including where the rebate was credited by the builder), enter the amount of the previously claimed rebate on line X3.

Consent to share information (Ontario new home affordability payment)

If you are eligible for the Ontario ENHR, you are also eligible for the ONHAP. Please complete the ONHAP – Claimant's consent to share information section under Part A and ONHAP – Builder's consent to share information section under Part D of this Form to provide your consent for information sharing with the Province of Ontario.

Providing consent allows for a more streamlined payment process, as the required information will be securely transferred to the Province of Ontario on your behalf to support the administration of the ONHAP program.

If you choose not to provide consent, your information will not be shared with the Province of Ontario. In this case, you will be responsible for submitting the required information directly to the Province of Ontario to proceed with requesting this payment.

Definition

House, for the purposes of the GST/HST and/or applicable provincial new housing rebate, generally includes a detached or semi-detached single-unit house, a duplex, a condominium unit, a townhouse, a unit in a cooperative housing corporation, a mobile home (including a modular home), and a floating home. It may also include the land around and underneath the house that is reasonably necessary for its use and enjoyment as a place of residence. This is generally up to one half hectare (1.23 acres) and may include nearby buildings such as a detached garage or shed.

House may also include a bed and breakfast or similar establishment where rooms are rented for short-term accommodation to the public. If more than 50% of the house is occupied by the owner or a relation as a primary place of residence, a GST/HST and/or applicable provincial new housing rebate may be claimed in respect of the entire house. If 50% or less of the house is occupied by the owner or a relation as a primary place of residence, only the part that is the primary place of residence is eligible for rebate purposes.
